

Vehicle Warranty

Your car isn't just a tool that helps you get things done.

Sometimes, it's a part of the family. A companion on the unique journeys that make you who you are.

And so, if you have a breakdown and your car's warranty has expired, you'll find yourself a little stuck.

Vehicle Warranty is the perfect option for peace of mind – we'll cover your car for mechanical or electrical breakdown, once the manufacturer's warranty or maintenance plan has expired.

Pre-owned Mechanical Breakdown Warranty

If your car's warranty has expired, this benefit will help with any unexpected costs that may arise after a breakdown.

Pre-owned Mechanical Breakdown Warranty covers all the major mechanical and electrical components on the vehicle with minimal exclusions and limitations.

Extended Mechanical Warranty

If you've just bought a brand-new set of wheels, this one's for you.

When your manufacturer's warranty expires, all the covered components are no longer protected.

With an Extended Mechanical Warranty, we'll cover parts, labour and all major mechanical and electrical components on the vehicle with minimal exclusions and limitations.

It's extra peace of mind so you don't have to miss a beat.
